If one or both parties to a Marriage License discover an error on the recorded Marriage License, both parties to the marriage shall execute a Notarized Affidavit stating the error. The County Clerk shall file and record the Affidavit as an amendment to the Marriage License, and the Affidavit is considered part of the Marriage License. Texas Family Code 2.209.

- Marriage License Instrument Number:
- Groom's full name as it appears on Marriage License:
- Bride's full name as it appears on Marriage License: $\qquad$
- Date of marriage reflected on Marriage License: $\qquad$
Reason for filing amendment (check all that apply):

$\square$
Date of marriage incorrectly entered by person who performed marriage ceremony?
Name misspelled on ID presented at time of purchase?
Two last names listed out of order on ID at time of purchase?
Last name listed as first name and first name listed as last name?
Other: Explain: $\qquad$

Specify the incorrect information on original marriage license:
$\square$

Correct information should be:

$\square$

NOTARY
OATH OF APPLICANTS
1 solemnly swear (or affirm) the information 1 have given in this affidavit is true and correct.
$\overline{\text { Bride signature }} \quad$ Date: $\quad$ Groom signature
THE STATE OF TEXAS
COUNTY OF LIMESTONE
BEFORE ME THE UNDERSIGNED AUTHORITY, ON THIS DAY PERSONALLY APPEARED
$\square$

Office use only

Date received for filing:

$\qquad$

Clerk initials:

If incorrect information concerns a name, was the name correct on ID used at the time the marriage license was issued? $\quad$ Yes or $\quad \square$ No

