

Limestone County is accepting applications for the position of Emergency Management Coordinator. Under the direction of the County Judge, the EMC is responsible for the overall coordination of planning, preparing, training and the execution of disaster response and recovery services in the county in cooperation with local EMS, fire departments and law enforcement. The EMC is responsible for developing and administering an emergency preparedness plan and responds to emergency situations during and after regular business hours, weekends, and holidays. Applications will be accepted in the Limestone County Judge's office, 200 W. State, Ste. 101, Groesbeck TX 76642.